

Orange Shirt Society

Beyond 94➤

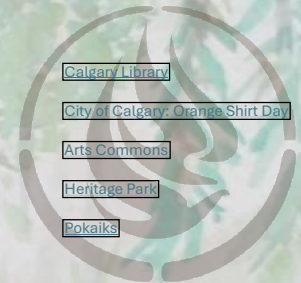

Truth and Reconciliation in Canada

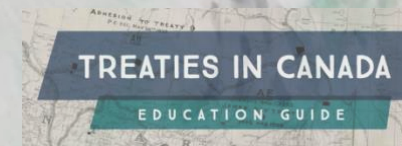

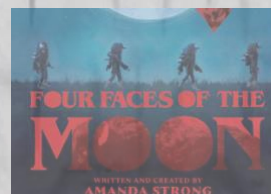

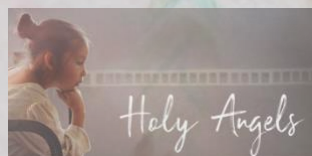

Missing Children of Indian Residential Schools

INENDI

Discover the
WITNESS BLANKET

To be able to move forward we must explore the truth of our past to best understand our present challenges. This resource is a journey that explores generations of experiences and events that are at the root of today's challenges to understand, to heal and to move forward in a good way. There are many resources here starting from the East and moving through the seasons of time that may help with your own journey and your own next steps in teaching others.

Proclamation of 1763: An article from CBC on the 250th anniversary of the proclamation and its significance with many of today's legal challenges. (CBC 2013)

Treaties in Canada: Education Guide: This is an educational resource created by Historica Canada to support teachers with exploring key periods in our relationships with Indigenous peoples. (Historica Canada)

Four Faces of the Moon: Multilayers in its storytelling approach, this short stop animation film by Metis artist Amanda Strong is an invitation to look into your own understanding of history, legacy and the importance of knowing who you are and where you come from. This film contains no English, relying on sound, image and Indigenous voices to tell the story. (Spotted Dawn Productions 2016)

Holy Angels: Jay Cardinal Villeneuve's short documentary captures Canada's colonialist history through images and the fragmented language of a child. It speaks of the resilience of a people who have found ways of healing and of coming home again. (NFB 2017)

Witness Blanket: This website from the Canadian Museum for Human Rights explores the hundreds of items and story related to these items that are the Witness Blanket created by Artist Carey Newman.

Inendi: Sarain Fox sits with her oldest Matriarch to gather her stories and preserve her cultural legacy. (CBC Gems 2020)

Missing Children of Indian Residential Schools: The Academic Data. Centre of the Letty Library at the University of Windsor has constructed this site that explores the Residential School across Canada through pictures, and interactive maps. It is also tracking the Unmarked Graves for Missing Children across Canada. (U of Windsor 2022)

Honour to Senator Murry Sinclair: Alanis Obomsawin shares the speech the Senator gave when he accepted the WFM-Canada World Peace Award, interspersing the heartbreaking testimonies of former students imprisoned at residential schools. (NFB 2023)

Orange Shirt Society: This site created by the Orange Shirt Society was created to support awareness of the inter-generational impacts of Indian Residential Schools.

Beyond 94: This interactive site created by CBC tracks the 94 calls to action and their stages of progress moving forward. (CBC 2018)

Treaty 7 Indigenous Ally Toolkit: This tool kit created by the Calgary Foundation is a resource designed to help educate Settlers for Treaty 7 about the original caretakers of this land and how we can move forward as an Ally.

National Centre of Truth and Reconciliation (Centre Symbol): This site holds a wealth of information and resources to support Truth and Reconciliation.

The Survivors Flag: This flag was conceived and created in support of the survivors. The link will help you understand the symbolic importance of each part of the flag and the collaborative work that went into it. (NCTR 2023)